MASTER CLASS IN JURY SELECTION Tuesday, March 14, 2017

This unique seminar presents multiple viewpoints on jury selection issues, from leading plaintiff and defendant personal injury trial lawyers. Topics of discussion include introductory remarks to the jury, dealing with case specific problems such as minimal impact, pre-existing injury, biased or unruly jurors, sympathy, and other important tactical considerations. Dr. Kuslansky, who holds a doctorate in cognitive psychology, will provide insights from the perspective of a jury consultant.

Faculty: David Dean, Esq. (Plaintiff's Perspective), Glenn W. Dopf, Esq. (Defendant's Perspective)
Dr. Laurie Kuslansky, Expert Jury Consultant

Additional Guest Video Appearances by: Scott Cacciabaudo, Esq., Robert Elliott, Esq., William Spratt, Esq., Marvin Salenger, Esq., James McCrorie, Esq. and Edmond Chakmakian, Esq.
